

Self-Protection with children in the community

ENPS ANNUAL FORUM
Vienna, 28th October 2010

croix-rouge française

What is the context of this project?

- The European context: Second Civil Protection Forum in November 2007
  - Can our children handle tomorrow's emergencies?
- Observations
  - Social level: child prescriber of good practices
  - Communication level: fear appeal messages
  - No coherence between messages at home and at school

croix-rouge française

What are the objectives of this project?

- The main objective of the program is to
    - enable children and the adults of their community to be better prepared to face risks situations by developing a risk culture within the community.
  - Through the experimentation of pedagogical resources we aim at:
    - Supporting children psychological and social capabilities to face risks situations
- By
- Supporting adults' educational practices
  - Encouraging social and intergenerational links within the community

What are the messages of this project?

- Video

How can self-protection work towards resilience?

- At an individual level
  - Usefulness
  - Social support
  - Parenting
  - Trust
- At a collective level
  - Involvement
  - Sense making

Thank you for your attention

www.autoprotectionducitoyen.eu/enfants
<http://www.autoprotectionducitoyen.eu/enfants/index.php?lang=en>